What You'll Find in 29connect

Make Meaningful Connections

Find and connect with colleagues who share your interests—clinicians, researchers, and practice-research partners.

Build Collaborations

Spark research collaborations, practice-research partnerships, and new professional opportunities.

Grow Your Network

Students and early career psychologists can connect with peers and find mentorship from experienced leaders in the field.

Access Support & Community

Join clinical communities, share ideas, and be part of a welcoming, engaged network that supports your professional journey.

*More than networking—
it's a community.*

29connect is about building relationships, creating opportunities, and ensuring that every member feels a sense of belonging in Division 29.

*Join 29connect
and make Division 29
your professional home!*
